Descriptive Notes

The Children of Shingwauk Alumni Association (CSAA) is comprised of staff, students, descendants of staff and students, and friends of the Shingwauk and Wawnoosh Indian Residential Schools. CSAA has been heavily involved in the development of the Shingwauk Project and the implementation of Residential School healing initiatives.

The Children of Shingwauk Alumni Association has been involved in Residential School issues since 1981.

The CSAA provides: A non-political voice for survivors concerns and interests to support, promote & enhance healing and reconciliation To establish working relationships with local, regional & national First Nations, Inuit, Metis, political groups, the Federal Government, Regional Survivor Groups and Churches to promote awareness within our communities and main stream Canada. The CSAA has organized gathering and alumni reunions along with Sacred Circles and Healing Conferences over the past 30 years. They were instrumental in establishing the National Residential School Survivors' Society (NRSSS), a survivor managed organization that has a mandate to raise awareness of Residential Schools' issues at the national and international level.
